In a Globe of pearly dew
 Pendent from the solemn yew
 Where the morning Sunbeams play
 There we dance our roundelay
 Vapour car befor 'tis noon
 Whirls us round the changeful moon .

Still at night we quit the skies
 Torches light at glow-worms' eyes
 To the drowsy beetle's hum
 Thousand, thousand Fairies come
 High and low o'er earth and sea
 Sleepy night we sport away .
